- 2) Public Comment

None

- 3) New Business
 - a. Ordinance 1447
City Council asked the HRC to review Ordinance 1447 and make a recommendation to them on the proposed changes to the Human Rights Ordinance. Motion by McWherter; second by Miller to recommend City Council approval of Ordinance 1447. All yeas; motion carried.

 - b. ELPD Complaint Summary 2018
Chief Larry Sparkes and Deputy Chief Steve Gonzalez were in attendance to review citizen initiated complaints, as well as those complaints initiated administratively. There were nine complaints against ELPD employees in 2018---four from the public and five initiated administratively. The findings/outcomes of these complaints: three were sustained, one was not sustained, three were unfounded and two were exonerated. Commissioners and the Chiefs discussed the complaints and outcomes at length.

- 4) Old Business
 - a. Goals 2019
Wendy Longpre will provide the HRC with a written report on the goal setting work conducted during two previous meetings at the February 6, 2019 meeting.

5) Council Liaison Report

Council Member Stephens noted that he is in process of setting a meeting of landlords as a first step of moving forward with the newly established Housing Task Force.

Council Member Stephens spoke about the Park Place development, which is currently being worked on and noted that it is budget season at the City.

6) Staff Liaison Report

The next HRC meeting is February 6. On Thursday, February 7, the first lecture in the Slavery to Freedom lecture series will happen at 5:00 PM at Kellogg Center.

7) Commissioner Concerns/Items

Commissioner Miller provided an update on the restrictive covenant situation in THE Brookfield Neighborhood. The neighborhood will be discussing this topic at a meeting on Monday, January 21. They intend to revise the covenant by making door-to-door contact with residents. Due to the change in legislature, a new effort is required to change this at the State level. Representative Singh introduced this change, but since it was not acted on, it will need to be re-introduced.

Commissioner Cannon noted that he will be attending tomorrow's Age Friendly Community Group meeting as the HRC representative.

8) Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 9:09 PM. Motion by McWherter; second by Miller. All yeas; motion carried.
