DEDUCTIONS SCHEDULE, LINE 2

RESIDENT: No schedule required; a full year resident deducts amount reported on federal Form 1040, line 28.
NONRESIDENT: Nonresidents use the nonresident deduction column of this worksheet to calculate their deduction. A nonresident is required to attach a copy of this deduction schedule to their city return.
PART-YEAR RESIDENT: Part-year residents use a separate line to report the amount of deduction by related source of income as a resident or while a nonresident and indicate resident (R) or nonresident (N) relationship in front of the deduction by related source of income. The resident portion of the deduction is 100% of the related deduction. The nonresident deduction is related to the income earned in the city while a nonresident and is computed by entering the percentage the related income is taxable in the Percentage Related Income Is Taxable column and entering the product of multiplying the related deduction times the percentage and entering it in the Nonresident Deduction column.

2106 requirements The changes made at the federal level do not apply to the City for the 2106. In order to show proof of these expenses a detailed list may be required. Contact your City to determine what they require as proof.

Outside salesperson: An "outside salesperson" is one who solicits business while working away from the employer's place of business as a full-time salesperson. If the individual is required to spend a stated period of time selling at the employer's place of business as part of their job, the individual is not an outside salesperson. If the individual only performs incidental activities there, such as writing up and handing in orders, the individual qualifies for the expense deduction. A salesperson whose principal activity is service and delivery is not an "outside salesperson." An inside salesperson who makes incidental outside calls and sales is not an "outside salesperson."

Line 7 instructions: Business expenses reported are allowed as an expense on the city's return only when the individual employee qualifies as an outside salesperson when the expenses were incurred.

Meal expenses: Under the Uniform City Income Tax Ordinance meal expenses are allowed only when incurred while away from home. No deduction is allowed for entertainment unless incurred by an outside salesperson.
