

CITY OF EAST LANSING
POLICY RESOLUTION 2022-2

RESOLUTION ESTABLISHING EAST LANSING
VOTING PRECINCTS AND POLLING LOCATIONS

WHEREAS, Michigan Election Law stipulates that in the second year following each federal census, the election commission or other officials charged with the performance of that duty by the charter shall divide precincts not later than 120 days before the primary election next preceding the general November election; and

WHEREAS, Section 1.4 of the Charter of the City of East Lansing requires the City Council, by resolution, to establish convenient and necessary election precincts which shall comply with the provisions of state law; and

WHEREAS, Michigan Election Law stipulates the City Council shall designate and prescribe the places of holding an election for the City, and provide a suitable polling place for each precinct in the City for use at each election.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the City Council of the City of East Lansing approves the following precinct changes and maintains the established polling places which shall remain as designated until such time as modified in the manner prescribed by law.
